Fits Snugly	Yes A snug fit every time.	Maybe Usually too loose. At times too tight & unsafe.	Not Likely Babies have proportionally large heads. A bib that can slide over their head won't fit snugly against the neck.
Arms Must be Fastened Together	No	Yes	No
Easy to Put On and Take Off	Yes Pull apart the Memory Arms™ and place onto your baby. Done!	Yes and No Bib with Velcro® are fairly easy. Snaps, ties, and buttons are progressively more difficult.	No These are very jostling to place onto babies. The head opening must be small to provide any dribble protection.
Effective Over Time	Yes The Memory Arms™ will retain their shape over time.	Yes and No Snaps remain effective over the life of the product. Velcro® tends to degrade over time.	Loses Effectiveness If the bib fits snugly when you first buy it, the wear of pulling it over the baby's head may reduce its effectiveness.
Washes Well	Yes Can wash with other similar colored clothing.	No Bibs that use Velcro® fasteners tend to get tangled in the washing machine and in the dryer.	Yes No persistent problems.
Protects High Neck Clothing	Yes Because the SnugEase™ Bib has a snug fit under the chin, it can protect high-neck clothing such as shirts with collars or turtlenecks.	No It doesn't even always protect low-neck clothing.	No It doesn't even always protect low-neck clothing.
